Description

This well-established architecture firm boasts a 63% profit margin and specializes in the design of high-end custom homes, primarily serving affluent residential clients on the Big Island of Hawaii. The business is fully remote, maintaining low overhead while leveraging a network of experienced consultants, including structural, civil, and landscape engineers. With a proven track record spanning nearly five decades, this firm has become a leader in luxury home design, delivering projects valued between $4million to $55million.

Operating as a boutique practice, they offer architectural services from initial concept through construction observation, ensuring each project meets the client's vision and is executed to the highest standards. Most projects are located in sought-after areas such as Hokulea and the Kohala Coast, with significant opportunities for growth through proactive marketing or geographic expansion. The seller plays an active role in project management. As he approaches retirement, he has decided to pursue a sale. To ensure a smooth transition, he is willing to remain with the business for 1-2 years and is also offering a 20% seller carry!

With a purchase price of $2,850,000, this is an exceptional opportunity for a licensed architect or design firm seeking entry or expansion into Hawaii's luxury residential market. The current owner is committed to a smooth transition and will provide introductions, as well as ongoing support to ensure continued success.
